MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Director of Central Intelligence
25X1A6A
SUBJECT: [redacted] Storage of Household Effects and Travel for Education of Dependents

1. This memorandum contains a recommendation in paragraph 5.

2. [redacted] and while employees stationed there get certain benefits, such as a salary differential, they do not get other benefits available to employees in almost identical circumstances such as those [redacted]. This has caused a serious impediment to the staffing of the [redacted] Station. Normally such staffing is a function of command and career service, but we are informed these have not been able to solve the [redacted] problem.

[redacted] But we do believe that it would be in the best interests of the government to approve the stateside storage of household effects and the travel to the United States for education of dependents in the same manner as was approved by the Director [redacted]. It is stated that these two measures would probably materially lessen or remove their staffing difficulties.
